This customer located inside the City consumed 3100 gallons of water during this service period. To calculate the charge, we add in the base rate of $17.88 for the first 2000 gallons. The remaining 1100 gallons is charged at a rate of $3.77 for each additional one thousand gallons. This is calculated by multiplying rate times 1100 or 1.1 thousand ($$3.77 \times 1.1$ thousand = $4.15). We then add the base rate of $$17.88 + $4.15 = $22.03$.

Inside City and Outside City base rates are different. You can find base rates under Water Rates Link.

Since wastewater is also based on water consumption, we use the 3100 gallons to calculate.

To calculate the charge, we add the base rate of $19.02 for the first 2000. The remaining 1100 is charged at a rate of $5.71 for each additional thousand ($$5.71 \times 1.1 = \6.28). We then add the base of $$19.02 + $6.28 = $25.30$.

Gas Delivery is cost associated with maintaining our lines, equipment and qualified employees. This customer consumed 7300 cubic feet of gas. To calculate the charge, we add the base rate of $6.70 on the first 0 - 500 cf. The remaining 6800 cf ($7300 - 500 = 6800$ cf) is charged at a rate of $1.99 for each additional one thousand cf (1.99×6.8 thousand cf = $13.53). We then add the base of $$6.70 + $13.53 = $20.23$ for gas delivery.

Sample Statement

For calculating this rate we subtract the base consumption of 500 cf from the earlier cost on delivery ($7300 - 500 = 6800$). To determine PGA charge, we multiply the month's current PGA rate times the remaining 6.8 thousand CF (3.5150×6.8 cf = $23.90).

Failure to Receive Bill

We strive to work with those who call or come by to discuss any issues they may have in paying ones bill. However, you are a credit customer and are due each month regardless if you receive a bill. We know it is unfortunate for the postal service to postpone your mail or by some other reason it is late. We provide you with an unchanging due date when service is established. This notice is printed on every bill to remind you that failure to receive bill does not relieve customer of payment or penalty.
